TARGETED MARKETING FOR YOUR STUDIO'S JOBS

ABOUT GAMEJOBHUNTER

Finding the right talent for your studio is hard. The market is competitive and you need to find ways to help your job listings stand out. Since 2007, GameJobHunter has helped video game studios of all shapes and sizes get their jobs seen by people who are actively searching for industry jobs.

We keep things simple - we don't have an ATS of our own, all job posts point back directly to your site or contact email. It's up to you. We provide a targeted marketing channel to get your jobs in front of thousands of additional job seekers each month!

HELP YOUR JOBS STAND OUT

FEATURED STUDIOS

Stand out on our job board with an image of your team, studio, or game. The Featured Studio grid is positioned prominently above our job listings and gives you an extra chance to catch job seeker's attention. If you purchase an unlimited package, you are added as a Featured Studio.

CITY PAGES

We have 29 pages of North American cities where we highlight the studios and number of open jobs in each city. These popular landing pages offer a wonderful opportunity to reach people who are looking for jobs in your specific location. We offer banner ads or targeted calls-to-action on each of these pages.
